An' you cought to see what we for you!"

"An" you ought to see what we saw!" cried Jumpo to Sammie Little-tall, the rabbit.

"What was it" asked Susie, who was Sammie sister.

"We saw mirships, an' automobiles, an' trains of cars runnin' in the streets, an' an' bit breath from talking too fast and he couldn't go on.

"Pooh!" and Susie. "Uncle Wiggly has an automobile and an arrable!" An but he heard sold and an arrable!" "No, but he heard got and he couldn't go sammie.

Singeing the Hoir.

the hair should be singed at moon? I've forgotten, but at all events, the idea was simply to insure the singsing of the bair regu-larly once a month. Doing this will prevent those nasty split ends that not only make the hair look winpy, but that ruin its health. It is a bit difficult to singe the hair by oneself, but it can be done.

If you are afraid, however, follow the directions for singeing but instead of using a match or inper, clip the ends with science. Singeing is better, however, for it seals up the tiny tubs that run through each hair. First comb the hair, then make into ny number of very thin braids. These hould be plaited (ightly. Now run should be plaited tightly. Now run the hand backwards over each braid,

to draw out all the ends of the hair.
Then take a match or a lighted taper, sid run up and down the length of the braid with it, burning off those little split ends. The hraid itself will not catch fire, if it is plaited lightly.
If you do this yourself, perhaps you will find it susser to place a lighted condie on the dresser, then to hold the ends of the hair. Top can use your other hand then, to follow the lary flames up the haid and put them
out before they burn near the braid.
It's easier, as we said though, if some outdoes this for you.

The hair should be shampooed after this, if possible, for they burnt pieces of heir stick, and the head has a slightly unpleasant soorched odor. The

Your Watch-Dog Liver

It Keeps You Well

Your liver acts as a watch-dog and helps to keep your system free from poisons, and from the diseases due to self-poisoning.

Your health may depend upon keeping your A purifying medicine is frequently needed, to stir up your liver into the proper activity, induce the bowels to act freely and purge the system from deleterious matter. Thedford's Black-Draught has been doing this successfully for many years, and is today one of the favorite liver medicines in the South, where liver medicines are so much used.

Prepared from purely vegetable ingredients, Black-Draught has none of the bad effects so often observed from the use of Calomel or other mineral

It acts naturally, promptly, reliably, and has helped thousands back to a healthy condition of stomach, liver and bowels.

Black-Draught has been successfully used in cases of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Backache, Constipation, etc. Thousands of men and women have written to tell of its good results. It is a family stand-by for young and old, in thousands of American homes.

Mr. K. J. McKinney, of Mt. Vernon, Ky., writes: "I was a merchant...and this kept me very closely confined. This confinement brought on constipation and ... severe headaches. I lost my appetite, got very thin and there seemed to be a lump in my stomach after every meal. I had THED-FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT in stock ... I took down a package to the house...and began using it regularly... The indicestion soon disappeared. I rested better. Next thing I knew I was gaining in weight ... BLACK-DRAUGHT is without doubt the best liver medicine on the market."
